BEYOND THE RIVER

Away Across the Mississippi is Held a Convincing Conversation.

"I tell you, sir, that they are one of the nearest combinations ever produced, and my experience of that sort of thing has been wide enough to entitle my judgment to some respect."

"Oh, I don't know," responded the first speaker's friend, with a little yawn, as though he did not care what he said. "The subject, 'I have never been able to see much difference in those things. They are all pretty nearly the same size and made of about the same stuff."

The talk, of which the foregoing is a fragment, took place in Gallatin, Missouri, not long ago, in the snug office of Dr. M. P. Flowers, one of the leading physicians of the State, who followed up the vein in which he had introduced it substantially in these words:

"Nonsense; that is the rhetoric of a boy, or rather of a man who either doesn't know or doesn't care what he says. Those things, as you call them, are just as different as the moon is from green cheese. Now, tinctures, lotions and ointments are very good in the treatment of the relief of pain or inflammation. But in the first place, they are unclean. They soil the hands and the linen, besides being always out of reach when they are most wanted."

"Well, my dear doctor," sighed the traveler from the North, "what would you have? This is a civilized world, and now, and nothing is ever at hand when it is wanted. You can't suggest anything but a bottle of medicine."

"Yes, I can," broke in the doctor, thumping the table with his fist. "I can suggest PERUVIAN SYRUP. I have tried it on my patients, and in all cases relief has followed in from three to forty-eight hours. The old plasters are six-coated—the Caprine is a telegraphic dispatch. For instance, in cases of Neuritis, Muscular Rheumatism, Lumbago, retarded action of the kidneys, and—"

"I give it up, doctor, and in case of need I'll buy Benson's," said the traveler, pleasantly.

In the center of the genuine is cut the word CAPRINE.

Our Progress.

As stages are quickly abandoned with the completion of railroads, so the huge, drastic, cathartic pills, composed of crude and bulky medicines, are quickly abandoned with the introduction of "Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets," which are sugar-coated, and little larger than mustard seeds, but composed of highly concentrated vegetable extracts. By druggists.

To strengthen and build up the system a trial will convince you of the value of Dr. Pierce's Bitters. It is the best medicine made. 12c.

TRUE Temperance

Is not signing a pledge or taking a solemn oath that cannot be kept, because of the non-removal of the cause—liquor. The way to make a man temperate is to kill the desire for those dreadful artificial stimulants that carry so many bright intellects to premature graves, and desolation, strife and unhappiness into so many families.

It is a fact! BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, a true non-alcoholic tonic, made in Baltimore, Md., by the Brown Chemical Company, who are old druggists and in every particular reliable, will, by removing the craving appetite of the drunkard, and by curing the nervousness, weakness, and general ill health resulting from intemperance, do more to promote temperance, in the strictest sense than any other means now known.

It is a well authenticated fact that many medicines, especially 'bitters,' are nothing but cheap whiskey vilely concocted for use in local option countries. Such is not the case with Brown's IRON BITTERS. It is a medicine, a cure for weakness and decay in the nervous, muscular, and digestive organs of the body, producing good, rich blood, health and strength. Try one bottle. Price $1.00.

WHICH IS BETTER?

The Board of Commissioners for the insane will find if they go to changing Superintendents of the asylum that the old truism that no man is perfect still holds. Every man who has ever had any authority over other men knows it is far better to correct mistakes in employees and retain them than to hire new ones and run the risk of their complete unfitness or incapacity. It is claimed that the Board has found fault with Dr. Dawson and that he has made mistakes. Does the Board expect to find a man for the place who will not make mistakes? Is it the duty of the Board to remove every officer who makes a mistake? If that was the law we fear there would hardly be a quorum at the next meeting of the Board. It is the general opinion that what few mistakes have been made in the asylum management thus far can be corrected by Dr. Dawson better than by any stranger, and the visit of greater mistakes avoided. It has been said that too much milk was used. If that is so, what could be easier than to cut down the supply of that food and use something else in its place. If there are other mistakes, let them be corrected. We believe Dr. Dawson will be found willing to make any change that can be shown to be an improvement. The Board should understand that the asylum is not a play-thing for them to use, but a great and sacred trust, and if its efficiency is destroyed, woe to the guilty parties. The afflicted citizens of the State, upon whom God has laid His finger in anger, are objects of the most tender solicitude, and the man who would seek to violate this sentiment is beneath the dignity of an officer or professional honor. The asylum cost the people of this State a large sum, and they will not sit quietly and see it trifled with. Upon its proper administration depends the comfort and often recovery of our own kinsmen, and it should not be made a political or personal foot-ball. Let the warning be heard.

AN IMPROBABLE STORY.

CARSON, March 12.
 A report is current in political circles here that Senator Fair will resign on account of ill health; that Governor Adams will also resign and Lieutenant-Governor Laughton will succeed him, and then appoint Adams United States Senator for the unexpired term. The above dispatch appears in the San Francisco Post of last evening, which paper proceeds to comment upon the absurdity of the proposition contained in it:
 We may ever expect strange things to come out of Nevada, but the above is a little too much. We have an idea that this story is the product of the imaginative brain of some Carson Bohemian, who thinks a cold blooded lie is sensational journalism, and that this is what the people hanker for.
 That a man elected as a Republican, who has always trained with the Republican party, and whose every personal instinct is with that party, should lend himself to a plot such as is above outlined is beyond our credence. Ambition for promotion is perfectly allowable, but we will not believe that Lieutenant-Governor Laughton would allow his ambition to overleap itself thus far. It would not be a desirable position for a man to be in, who, as a Republican Governor, should appoint a Democratic United States Senator on the strength of a bargain.
 It may be that Senator Fair will not want to serve out his term; but we do not believe that Governor Adams will be his successor. In case of Fair's retirement it is more than likely that William Garrard will be named to the vacancy. Mr. Garrard is not nationally conspicuous as a statesman yet, but is able to stand beside Miller or Lapham of New York, or Tabor of Colorado.
 The telegram must have originated in the brain of some giddy school girl, or perhaps it is the vapors of satisfied ambition. It is idle and nonsensical to think the Democratic Governor would give away a horse to win a saddle.

So large a proportion of the members of the next Congress are young men, that a wicked exchange has been led to christen it the National Kindergarten.

The people of California have much to be thankful for. The Legislature adjourned last night.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Senator Davis and His Bride.
 FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., March 13.
 All arrangements for the Davis-Burr wedding are completed and the ceremony will occur tomorrow a little before noon. The steamer Murchison, which was to have gone down the river to-day, is held back at the request of Colonel Green, another boat taking her place. She will carry the bridal party to Wilmington to-morrow. Men have been busy all day preparing the boat for the distinguished visitors. The Judge and his bride will occupy the ladies' cabin and dining saloon, which are trimmed with holly and arbor vitae, and the whole boat has been scrubbed up and put in good order. The townspeople are taking more interest in the matter than in anything else that has happened since Sherman's army arrived here 18 years ago. The bride is a lady about 36 years of age, weighs about 140 or 150 pounds, and is well proportioned, and dark complexioned. Though not beautiful she would everywhere be noticed as handsome.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 14.
 To-day at 11 o'clock at the Tokay residence of Hon. Wharton J. Green, four miles from Fayetteville, N. C., Judge David Davis married Miss Addie Burr. It was a quiet wedding, and only a few guests, Rev. J. C. Huskee officiating. The presents were numerous and costly. At 1 o'clock the couple left on the steamer Murchison.

General Grant's Mexican Guest.
 NEW YORK, March 14.
 General Diaz is expected here Saturday and will be entertained at dinner by ex-President Grant. Many prominent gentlemen will be present at the dinner. Grant said yesterday: "When I was at Monterey I experienced much hospitality from Diaz, and, of course, must return it when he visits New York. The dinner to which I have invited several gentlemen of the city will be given at the Union League Club-house, or in some other such place, but I don't know when the dinner will be given, for the very simple reason that I don't know when the ex-President will arrive. When I was in New Orleans I telegraphed him at Monterey and asked him to accept my hospitality with the party who would be with him, and also when he would arrive. He telegraphed back that there would be a dozen in his party and accepted my invitation to dine, but did not say when he would arrive. However, I fancy we will be prepared for him when he does come."

Fun For the Colored Folks.

NEW YORK, March 14.
 An Atlanta (Ga.) special, speaking of the election to fill Gov. Stephens' place, says: A prominent Republican said yesterday, "We can't tell before the Democratic Convention meets what kind of a man will be nominated. If the choice falls on a Reactionary man such as Bacon we must make a fight against him in the face of certain defeat. If a Liberal, progressive man is nominated I am in favor of putting up no Republican candidate and, as a rule, the colored leaders desire an election. They think there is fun in it, and if the question were left to the colored Republicans there would be an election for all officers of the State every month."

A Collection of Worthless Old Tubs.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.
 The United States man-of-war Tennessee, Admiral Cooper commanding, the flagship of the South Atlantic squadron, will arrive here late to-night. She will remain for some time until the arrival of the remainder of the squadron, including the Yantic, Alliance, Swatara, Kearsarge and Vandalia, which will rendezvous here the coming week. The fleet comes from all directions, some vessels having been at Mobile, others at Curacao and others at Cayenne, French Guinea.

The Billiard Champions.

NEW YORK, March 14.
 Vignaux played billiards twice yesterday, but it was not one of his playing days and Sexton got away with the honors, with a run of 61 points. They go to Philadelphia to play Thursday night, and thence to Chicago for a tournament. Slosson, who is practicing all by himself and who is not booked for the tournament, has beaten Vignaux's run of 256 with one of 305.

Indignant Catholics.

NEW YORK, March 14.
 The accounts given in the newspapers of the burial of McGloin, the murderer, and the prize-fighter Elliott in Calvary cemetery seem to have excited the indignation of Catholics in this city, who seem look on the interment of the bodies of murderers in the cemetery as a desecration.

A Fish Story.

NEW YORK, March 14.
 The steamship Andover, which arrived yesterday from South America, reports passing a large school of whales about 100 miles East of Cape Henry. The whales seemed, as seen from the deck of the vessel, to be from 90 to 100 feet in length.

INJURED CHINAMEN.

Eighteen Suits for Damages - A Large Sum Claimed.

WAYNESBORO, Ga., March 14.
 Great excitement exists here over the present aspect of the Chinese question. Seven or eight months ago two Chinamen—Tom Loo Chang and Ah Sing—made their appearance here. They announced their intention of opening business in fans, notions and other trifles. Strangely enough, much opposition to them manifested itself among merchants as well as tradespeople of this section. The Chinese were really in nobody's way, as their business was altogether insignificant, and the chances were that if left alone they would soon tire of their location. The complaints of Loo Chang and Ah Sing created quite a flutter among resident Chinese, and they put themselves at once in communication with the Chinese Minister at Washington, who called the attention of the government to the matter, the result of which was an inquiry by the District Attorney and reference of the matter to the Grand Jury. Loo Chang came back a couple of weeks since and reopened business. Conservative citizens now see that a grave error was committed, and are doing all in their power to calm the minds of the people who are anxious to expel them again. Last week fuel was added to the fire by the commencement of suits against 18 of our most prominent citizens, charging them with damages to the amount of $115,000. Loo Chang & Co., as a firm, claim $50,000, Tom Loo Chang $40,000 and Ah Sing $25,000. The suits are brought in the United States Circuit Court at Savannah, with a great array of counsel on both sides. The suits will no doubt attract much attention.

A Sermon for an Agitator.

NEW YORK, March 14.
 A Times editorial on Egan says: He will be more comfortable here than in Dublin, and there are thousands of his countrymen and countrywomen in America who are anxious to question him somewhat closely as to the use made of the Land League funds. He denies, of course, that any part of the money in his hands was spent in aiding conspiracy to murder English officials. This was to be expected; but Egan must not expect people to accept his unsupported word. The Land League will never be vindicated until an examination of its accounts has shown where the money did go. Egan cannot clear himself or the league of the damaging suspicion by abuse of Castle officials or reckless talk about jury packing in Dublin.

Half-Civilized Indians on the War Path.

ST. LOUIS, March 14.
 Advice from the Creek Indian nation says: Sleeping Rabbit, one of the principal leaders of the Spiche faction, who was arrested some days ago by General Porter, commander of the Chickatee party, was killed at Okmulgee last week while attempting to escape. Two other leaders of the same faction have also been killed. These murders, as they are called, were said to have roused the Spiche men to renewed action and 200 of them are reported to be marching to Okmulgee for the purpose of fighting. General Porter, with 200 men, has gone out to meet the advancing party, and a conflict is expected.

About the Vanderbilts.

NEW YORK, March 13.
 The funeral of Jacob M. Vanderbilt, Jr., brother-in-law of Commodore Vanderbilt, occurred yesterday. J. H. Vanderbilt, Jr., will leave for Mexico Thursday, in company with Theo. McNamee, to occupy an important position there, it is said, in the extension of railroad communication to which they have been appointed through the influence of General Grant.

Working Up Election Frauds.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 14.
 Managers of the election at Bennettsville and 15 other Democrats of Marlboro county were arrested yesterday charged with conspiracy at the last general election. Several Deputy United States Marshals left the city to-day for Chester to make further arrests of Democrats for alleged election frauds.

A Veteran Sporting Editor.

NEW YORK, March 14.
 E. N. Corvalho, turf editor of Turf, Field and Farm, died from pneumonia yesterday at the Fremont House. He was born in Charleston, South Carolina, in 1817, and was the author of several dramas. When the Potter building was burned in February, 1882, he narrowly escaped death, being rescued from a third-story window.

Sullivan Wants to Meet Slade.

NEW YORK, March 13.
 Billy Edwards the pugilist had a great benefit to-night in Madison Square Garden. Sullivan said if Fox would bring along his stiff (Slade) with him he would accommodate him.

A Swindling Broker.

CHICAGO, March 13.
 E. A. Duchane, the broker extradited to Belgium for swindling clients, has been sentenced to 10 years imprisonment. His wife received the same punishment as accomplice.

The Star Chamber—How the Irish Prisoners are Guarded.
 DUBLIN, March 14.
 The secret inquiry at Dublin Castle to hear evidence of informers continues daily. As no details are made public, no intelligence can be gained of the evidence thus far adduced, but the star-chamber manner in which the proceedings are being conducted have given rise to some ugly suspicions. It is now openly charged that various informers have been carefully coached and that the testimony to be presented at the trial will clearly show this. Three persons were examined yesterday.

The men in Kilmainham prison charged with conspiracy to murder continue in good health with the exception of Patrick Delavey, charged with attempting to murder Judge Lawson. They are kept in solitary confinement with the exception of two hours every day when they marched around the yard at certain distances from each other. Even when one of them is allowed to see a legal adviser a large table separates them, and the Warden is present at the interview, besides armed police. The jail is guarded both day and night by soldiers.

Strike of Workmen—A Political Committee Formed.

LONDON, March 14.
 Three thousand laborers in Huddersfield district struck work owing to a disagreement with the masters regarding wages. A meeting of Irish, Scottish and English members of Parliament was held yesterday, at which it was decided to form a political committee, with a view to forming public opinion in regard to Irish reforms. The committee will be quite an impartial one, no Parnellites being connected with it.

A Malicious Invention.

PARIS, March 14.
 The report that President Grevy contemplates resigning is presumed a malicious invention intended to encourage Orleans intrigues. The cabinet has resolved to instruct the prosecution of anyone at a public meeting inciting murder and pillage.

Russian News.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 14.
 A woman named Finger, an important Nihilist, who arranged the murder of General Strelnikoff at Odessa in 1882, has been arrested. The intestines of Prince Gortschakoff have been sent to Frieburg to be analyzed. The Prince died at the villa of his German mistress.

What a State May Do.

LONDON, March 14.
 The English legal opinion on the decision of the United States Supreme Court confirming the action of the Virginia General Assembly relative to the State bond question is that a State cannot directly break its contracts, but may in practice prevent their enforcement by evasive enactments.

Parnell Heard From.

LONDON, March 14.
 In the Commons to-day Parnell moved a second reading of his bill amending the land act. He said the agitation in Ireland must continue to increase until the act was amended.
